Quotation request:

Only written quotations signed by a Director of Express Fire Equipment Ltd are valid. All quotations are valid for a period of 7 (seven) days from date of issue unless otherwise stated. Quotations are only valid for one order and subsequent invoices for the same products will be charged at the standard catalogue list price. Quotations are subject to the availability of goods and Express Fire Equipment Ltd, shall have the right to substitute goods or materials of a similar or equivalent nature and/or value.

Ordering:

Orders from customers can be accepted in person, by telephone and by fax or email. All orders should be accompanied by an official purchase order which will be requested at the time of ordering. If no purchase order is supplied by the customer, the name of the person placing the order will be accepted as a purchase order. Responsibility for providing a purchase order rests solely with the Customer. Express Fire Equipment Ltd. accepts no liability for goods ordered without a written purchase order.

Product & Information Alterations:

Express Fire Equipment Ltd. reserves the right to make alterations to or withdraw products without notice or liability. Express Fire Equipment Ltd. reserves the right to substitute goods or materials of a similar or equivalent nature and/or value.

Suitability of Products:

Express Fire Equipment Ltd. makes no representation that any product or service referred to in our catalogue or web site will be appropriate for use in locations other than those implied. It is the responsibility of the Purchaser to locate, use and maintain equipment in accordance with their responsibilities.

Warranties:

The warranties offered on products sold by Express Fire Equipment Ltd. vary according to product. Please ask for more information when you order. All warranties and guarantees are subject to compliance with the manufacturer's standard operating and maintenance instructions.

VAT:

VAT is not included in the published price. VAT is charged at the current rate.

Payment Terms:

Authorised credit accounts terms are strictly 30 days net from date of invoice, except by prior written agreement from an authorised representative of Express Fire Equipment Ltd. An official invoice will be sent once the goods have been dispatched. If any sum payable is not paid when due, that sum will bear interest from the due date until such time as payment is made in full (in cash or cleared funds). Express Fire Equipment Ltd. will be entitled to suspend credit services for any non-payment of account. All credit accounts are subject to board approval by the Company Directors and Express Fire Equipment Ltd. reserve the right to refuse credit accounts without explanation. All accounts may be submitted for third party verification and approval. All debts may be transferred to a third party invoice discounting company.

Non-account customers – payment must be received and cleared before the order is dispatched and payment may be remitted by cash, electronic transfer, cheque or debit/credit card. All payment must be made in UK £ Sterling and payment must include VAT at the current rate.

Payment by credit card:

We are able to accept payment by credit card (Visa and MasterCard). Please note that we are not able to accept American Express or other types of credit card. Where credit cards are used to pay aged debts on account the surcharges detailed below, as levied by the card processing company, will apply. Please note that no surcharge will apply for any payments by debit card or where payment is received by credit card in advance of an order being dispatched by Express Fire Equipment Limited.

General:

These Terms and Conditions may only be varied or amended in writing and duly signed by a Director of Express Fire Equipment Ltd. The formation, existence, construction, validity and all aspects whatsoever of the contract or any item of the contract will be governed by English law. The English Courts will have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute which may arise out of, or in connection with the contract. Both Express Fire Equipment Ltd. and the purchaser agree to submit to that jurisdiction.

Termination:

Express Fire Equipment Ltd. may, by way of written notice, terminate the contract immediately if the purchaser is in material breach of the contract, enters into insolvency, bankruptcy or any arrangement or situation which has a like effect.

Transfer of Ownership:

Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk, property in and title to the goods shall remain with the seller until the seller has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) of (a) all goods and/or services the subject of the contract and (b) all other goods and/or services supplied by the seller to the buyer under any contract whatsoever. Payment of the full price shall include, without limitation the amount of any interest or other sum payable under the terms of this and all other contracts between the seller and buyer.
